Notes from the Chair ...

Dear ADFAS Newcastle Members,

We are looking forward to our last lecture for the year next Monday night with Ron Ramsey. We wanted to run through the organisation for the night again and we have the link for those who wish to live stream the lecture.

Arrangements for the Lecture...

The arrangements for this lecture at Christ Church Cathedral are outlined below.

Lecture: Ron Ramsey - Venice the Perfect Setting for Love, Sex and Death

Venue: Christ Church Cathedral

Date: Monday 1st November 2021

Time: 6.30 pm

- Bring your phones as QR codes and proof of double vaccination will be needed on entry. For those without an appropriate phone, there will be a written alternative to log in and you will need to bring a paper printout of proof of your vaccination. Allow plenty of time to sign in and get to your seats.
- Masks will be required except for when you are eating and drinking.
- A glass of wine with cheese and biscuits and a little Christmas offering may be collected before moving to your seats in the pews.
- The notices on where to sit in the pews are already in place so please only sit in the designated rows. When you leave please turn over the paper notice so we know what areas need cleaning. Please feel free to bring a cushion as the pews are a little hard.
- We will have a large screen in front of the Nave Altar and four small screens placed strategically along the sides of the church.
- Sanitiser will be available

Parking – Changes to Parking Availability...

Please note the Newcastle club will NOT be available for parking as they have a large function on that evening. However, parking will be available in the Cathedral grounds (including on the grass areas) or on the street, including in Newcomen Street.

Live Streaming...

Ron Ramsey has graciously agreed to allow live streaming of the lecture for those not quite ready to attend in person.

We hope you all enjoy this lecture and we look forward to seeing many of you in person at the Cathedral.
